FLAGET SOUVENIRS

I have been in the antique/junk business for many years. Over that time I have developed a network of dealers who keep an eye out for items I am looking for, among them, Flaget items. Usually they can pick them up for almost nothing and they give them to me, most of the time, free of charge for the museum. I got a call from one of these dealers the other day and he asked me to stop by and pick up some Flaget items. He had bought them from an estate of a souvenir seller. He gave to me a bag of Flaget souvenirs which were sold prior to the annual Flaget vs. St. X football games in the late 50s and early 60s. I have never seen any of the items he gave me before, so I was very happy to get them. As usual he would not take any payment for the items. The dealers name is Jim Powell. Between him and another dealer, Andy Albatys, neither of whom attended Flaget, the museum has benefited many times over the years. Sports programs, pennants, and a wide array of items have been placed into the museum thanks to these two individuals. This is not an advertisement for them, but more of a personal endorsement of them. If you ever need to sell off any antiques, precious metals, jewelry, old photos, paper items etc. either of these men who are most honest, share our good Christian values and deal most fairly could be of service to you. Just ask me for their contact information. Should you have any items that you can donate to the museum just bring them to any luncheon, drop them off at the museum, or call me.
