1961 STATE CHAMPS

This year St. X won their regional track championship. They went on to win the state title last weekend. In 1961 they also won their regional track championship, but that year the state championship turned out a little different than it did this year.

Gene Sartini took over as track coach in 1959. He achieved moderate success with the team but when the 1961 season rolled around things changed. During the season the team had a good record. They finished second to St. X in the regional and for the first time in school history they qualified athletes for the state track meet. Four of Flaget's team entered the meet, with Sonny Alexander qualifying in the 100 and 220 dashes, the broad jump and as part of the 880-relay team with classmates Joe Schuler, Bill Bouchard, and Joe Washington. The team had a great performance with Alexander winning both of the dashes in which he was entered, and finishing tied for second in the broad jump, thus accumulating eighteen points on his own. When combined with the first place finish achieved by the 880-relay team Flaget ended up with a total of 27 points, the second lowest total ever to win the state title. Now this was in the time before the class system came into being for track, so many more schools competed for the title. The points split just right for Flaget, which enabled them to win with such a low total score, finishing just ahead of Trinity and Campbellsville. Trinity qualified first in their region with their mile relay team. The mile relay was the last contest of the state meet and if Trinity won it, they would be the state champs. But another west end school, Shawnee, which finished second to St. X in the regional for the mile run, ran the fastest mile relay in state history and won the event, thus giving the championship to Flaget. This would be the greatest success of the Flaget track program.
